

Enjoy fine food and welcoming atmosphere in Killala, Mayo, Ireland

There are five pubs in Killala, all of which offer food. Arch restaurant: Recently opened and a very welcomed addition to Killala's gastronomic experience, the Arch restaurant offers a fantastic choice of both Traditional Irish and European dishes made from locally sourced ingredients with a unique twist. Very well priced and excellent management.

The Tower Bar/Blaines: Lunch 12-2pm. Fantastic soups and simple, delicious meals using local produce. Fresh, tasty and a real treat. Music at the weekends.

The Village Inn: Offers food until 8pm in summer season. Fixed menu offering a selection for everyone - steaks, chicken, fish etc. Music at the weekends.

Golden Acres: Restaurant and bar food available. Music at the weekends.

The Arch Bar: Small, welcoming with an open fire. Music at the weekends.

Gilvarrys: The pub with no name: the perfect spot for a quiet pint of Guinness. On a sunny evening, enjoy the outdoor patio area.

Many of the above venues provide music during the week in summer. Group bookings welcomes, just ask Liz for details.
